Randolph celebrated the Fourth of July in a very quiet way, the morning till 9 o'clock being as quiet as Sunday.

At the appointed hour, a procession was formed, headed by the Green Mountain band, followed by members of the U. S.
Grant post, in automobiles, followed by a party of scouts, some school children and a few "horribles." The line of march was up South Main street to the Highlands, down over the hill over South Pleasant street, through Merchants' row to the square, down Main street to School, down School to Summer, and back that way to the square, where they were disbanded. Among the most notable teams in the procession was the little Jenness Montgomery, the small son of Elmer Montgomery, who was driving a pair of calves hitched to a small hay wagon, decorated with the national colors, on which was a load of hay. The team and driver seemed very much at home, and although the small animals were not noted for their speed, they attracted much attention, and the driver was evidently gratified with the hearty cheering of the crowd as they came in sight. In the afternoon, there were games and sports at the McCall park, which included a game of ball with the Waterbury people and the Randolph Athletic club. In the evening there were fireworks on Mari-Castle park, and a dance in DuBois & Gay's hall, which afforded amusement for all who wished.

lately vacated by Mrs. J. H. Richmond.
The bride was for a long time an efficient saleslady in the suit department of Bell Brothers' store, and is popular with the young people here, and the groom has always resided here and is foreman in the office of The Herald and News.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength, and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn-out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Boyd, Dewey, Okla., and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed

"My Feet Were Just Aching For TIZ"

Let Your Poor, Tired, Chafed, Tender Feet "Spread Out" Gloriously In a Bath of TIZ!

"O, O, glory, what a feelin'! Wonderful what TIZ will do for your feet!" Just take your shoes off, and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, achy, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a TIZ bath. Your toes will wiggle with joy. They'll look up at you and almost talk, and then they'll take another dive in that TIZ bath!

Yes, TIZ is life to feet!

That man or woman who says there's nothing like, or as good as, TIZ never had a foot in a TIZ bath.

When your feet ache, get tired, swollen, tender or sore, just try TIZ. Your feet will just feel fine; also your corns, bunions and calluses will disappear.
You'll be able to wear smaller shoes, too; your feet will keep cozy; they'll never be frost-bitten, never chapped.

TIZ operates under a new principle, drawing out all the poisonous exudations that make feet sore, corny and tired.
There's nothing else like TIZ, so refuse any imitation.

TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Recommended by all drug stores, depart-as the guests of the former's mother, Madam Ruth Kennedy, left Saturday for their home in Bridgeport, Conn.

Will A. Denmore found a valuable young mare in his pasture recently, which had been seriously cut on barbed wire, but he feels that she will recover after a time with proper care and nursing.

Almon I. Dexter's house came near burning last Friday afternoon, as the result of the exploding of an oil stove.
The alarm was given over the telephone, but before help arrived the fire had gained good headway in a partition and the house was saved only by the energetic work of a few who arrived with fire extinguishers. A fire extinguisher is a household necessity, and every farmer or householder should own and keep one on his premises, charged and ready for business at a moment's notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Goodwin and their two sons spent Sunday in Washington as the guests of Mrs. Goodwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Tiltonson.

working in the family of R. H. Adams for the past three months, has completed her services there and is working for a time in the family of Hale K. Darling.

Arthur Carpenter has purchased the freight business between Chelsea and South Royalton of Leon W. Bugbee and will take possession of the same in the near future. Mr. Carpenter will sell his farm on the east hill, stock and tools, at auction on Saturday, July 13. Mr.
Bugbee proposes to go to northwestern Canada to locate.

While in town to attend the county convention last Saturday, Judge H. T.
Baldwin of Wells River deposited in the county clerk's office the record book of C. Hale, who was a justice of the peace in the town of Newbury covering the years from 1826 to 1829, and it is evident that litigation was quite popular in those days, for the old record book reveals the fact that Justice Hale tried 182 cases during the three-year period.
The record book was found in the attic of the bank building at Wells River.
All such record books are required by law to be deposited with the county clerk in their respective counties.

Made Little Difference.

Fred Hartford, a widely known sporting man of the Hub, was dining.

The meal was bad, and the service was worse. No wonder Hartford lost his temper. He stood it as long as he could, and then he vigorously complained to the waiter.

"Oh, sir, if you only knew what a hard time we waiters have to get along."

"Well, why be a waiter?" asked Hartford.

"What else can I do?" said the waiter.

"Don't you know that they are paying some men as high as $10,000 a year to play ball?" returned Hartford.

"But I can't play ball," the waiter said.

"What's the difference?" said Hartford, as he started for the door. "You can't wait, either."—Boston Traveller.
